

Garry Weaven Emerging Trustee Scholarship

Application Form

Note: Applications close 16 February 2024

Candidate details

Name
Address
Phone		Mobile
Email

Instructions

Answer the questions overleaf.

Please also note the following requirements for all applicants:

- Be trustee director of a profit-to-member super fund or identified by a sponsoring organisation as an incoming director. (Member and employer representative directors, as well as independent directors, are eligible.)
- Have an endorsement letter from a profit-to-member fund or a sponsoring organisation/union/employer association.
- Be in the first term of a director appointment to a profit-to-member super fund or (in the case of potential employer or employee representative directors, identified by a sponsoring organisation as a director nominee).

Submit your application form and endorsement letter via email,
GarryWeavenEmergingTrusteeScholarship@ifminvestors.com.

Note: ACTU Office Holders and IFM employees are ineligible to apply for the scholarship.

Candidate questions

What inspires you about being a director of a profit-to-member superannuation fund?
(Maximum 200 words)

What three things from your background make you a strong candidate for this program? (Maximum 200 words)

What skills and attributes do you think a director in today's world needs?
(Maximum 100 words – bullet points accepted)

How do you intend to contribute to the industry super movement by undertaking the activities included in the scholarship? (Maximum 150 words)

Please provide a letter of endorsement from someone you have worked for or other directors on boards you may sit on.

IFM-20DECEMBER2023-3287977