Tuesday, 24th November 2026

Singapore - Global pension capital investor IFM Investors has appointed Singapore business leader Tan Chin Hwee as an adviser and member of IFM's Asia Credit Investment Committee, and Chairman of the investment committee for its Asia Debt Strategy.

Mr Tan's appointment follows the opening of IFM's Singapore office in September 2026 which signalled the firm's confidence in the market and strengthening its ability to originate, assess and execute investment opportunities locally and work more closely with businesses and partners across the region.

Mr Tan brings more than three decades of investment and business leadership experience in Asia. He was previously Asia-Pacific CEO of Trafigura and founding partner and co-head of Apollo Global Management's Asia-Pacific business. He also holds several senior board and advisory positions, including Chairman of Singapore Trade Data Exchange Services and Chairman of the Energy Supply Resilience Advisory Panel.

Quotes attributable to IFM Investors Executive Director and Co-Head of APAC Diversified Credit, Hiran Wanigasekera:

"We're delighted to be working with Chin Hwee who brings deep private credit and investment expertise, extensive knowledge of markets across Asia and experience building and leading businesses in the region.
